Biography

Although she had already won Gold for Best Film at the International Festival of Film Schools in Munich during her studies at the London Film School (LFS) and the Academy of Media Arts Cologne (KHM), Tini Tüllmann was first drawn to the sound and casting departments.

In 2016, she debuted with her first feature film FREDDY/EDDY (which she also produced and distributed herself) at the 50. Internationalen Hofer Filmtage. The film was awarded the first Heinz Badewitz Prize for Best Young Director and subsequently received several more awards at national and international festivals.

Tini Tüllmann is currently working on various series and feature film projects as a screenwriter and director.
